Re: United States v. Nester Fernandez, 19Cr747

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I submit this letter to respectfully request an extension of time to comply with the conditions of Mr. Fernandez's release ordered by Magistrate Gabriel W. Gorenstein on November 6, 2019. To date Mr. Fernandez has relinquished his travel documents and remains compliant with other conditions of his release. We seek the additional time to have his co-signers gather the required documents, allow counsel to review those documents to ensure compliance and to schedule dates for these individuals to be interviewed by the Government. If given the additional time, we believe we can satisfy this final condition within two (2) weeks. We are therefore seeking to have the date to satisfy the bond extended to Wednesday, December 4, 2019.

I of course raised this issue with AUSA Michael Neff and he advised that the Government will consent to one (1) week. Ordinarily, I would agree that one week would be sufficient, however out of an abundance of caution; I am seeking an additional week because I will be out of the District next week and we wish to avoid any potential issues with scheduling of the interviews due to the Thanksgiving holiday next week.

Thank you in advance for any and all consideration of this request. I will await the further instructions from the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

A. James Bell, Esq.
